1. REISSUANCE AND PURPOSE

Pursuant to Section 134 of reference (a) and the authority vested in the Secretary of Defense by Section 113 of reference (a), this Directive reissues reference (b) to update the responsibilities, functions, relationships, and authorities of the USD(P), as prescribed herein.

2. APPLICABILITY

This Directive applies to the Office of the Secretary of Defense (OSD), the Military Departments, the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Unified Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, and the DoD Field Activities (hereafter referred to collectively as "the DoD Components").

3. RESPONSIBILITIES AND FUNCTIONS

The Under Secretary of Defense for Policy is the principal staff assistant and advisor to the Secretary and Deputy Secretary of Defense for all matters concerning the formulation of national security and defense policy and the integration and oversight of DoD policy and plans to achieve national security objectives. In the exercise of this responsibility, the USD(P) shall:

3.1. Represent the Department of Defense, as directed, in matters involving the National Security Council (NSC), Department of State, and other Departments, Agencies, and interagency groups with responsibilities for national security policy.

3.2. Serve as a member of the NSC Deputies Committee; serve as a member of the Deputies Committee for Crisis Management; and advise the Secretary of Defense on crisis prevention and management, including contingency planning for major areas of concern.

3.3. Develop policy for defense-related international negotiations and represent the Department of Defense in those negotiations unless otherwise directed.

3.4. Develop and coordinate DoD policy and positions for international negotiations on arms control implementation and/or compliance issues.

3.5. Develop policy on the conduct of alliances and defense relationships with foreign governments, their military establishments, and international organizations; integrate and oversee plans and programs undertaken in conjunction with those alliances and defense relationships.

3.6. Develop, coordinate, and oversee the implementation of international security strategy and policy; political-military policy on issues of DoD interest that relate to foreign governments and their defense establishments, to include arrangements for United States military facilities, access and operating rights, and status of forces; and policy on all matters relating to prisoners of war and missing in action.

3.7. Develop, coordinate, and oversee the implementation of policy and plans for defense security assistance.

3.8. Develop, coordinate, and oversee the implementation of policy to reduce and counter the threat to the United States, its forces, and allies of weapons of mass destruction and other militarily significant technologies and force capabilities, to include counterproliferation policy, arms control policy, and security policy.

3.9. Provide oversight of all DoD activities related to international technology transfer; develop, coordinate, and provide policy direction and overall management for the DoD Technology Security Program and policy related to international technology transfer, to include export controls, dual-use and munitions licensing, arms cooperation programs, and support for enforcement and intelligence systems.

3.10. Develop, coordinate, and oversee the implementation of strategy and policy for strategic and theater nuclear offensive forces, strategic and defensive forces; and review and evaluate plans, programs, and systems requirements for such forces and systems to assure consistency with the strategy and policy.

3.11. Assist the Secretary of Defense in development of national security and defense strategy; advise on the resources and forces necessary to implement that strategy, to include serving as the principal advisor for the planning phase of the DoD Planning, Programming, and Budgeting System and for monitoring the degree to which the DoD program and budget underwrite the strategy; and assist the Secretary of Defense in preparing written policy guidance for the preparation and review of operational and contingency plans, including those for nuclear and conventional forces, and in reviewing such plans.

3.12. Develop policy guidance, provide overall supervision, and provide oversight of planning, programming, budgeting, and execution of special operations activities, including civil affairs and psychological operations, and of low-intensity conflict activities, including counterterrorism, support to insurgency, and contingency operations.

3.13. Develop, coordinate, and oversee the implementation of policy for the defense and military aspects of the promotion of constitutional democracy and respect for human rights, United States participation in peace operations, and the provision of humanitarian assistance.

3.14. Develop, coordinate, and oversee the implementation of drug control policy, to include planning, programming, and budgeting for the DoD counter-drug mission.

3.15. Provide mid- and long-range policy planning on strategic security matters and emerging national security issues; develop and oversee the implementation of a comprehensive strategy toward Russia, Ukraine, and other newly independent states of Eurasia; plan and conduct net assessments and policy research activities and programs.

3.16. Develop, coordinate, and oversee the implementation of policy for international security countermeasures activities of the Department of Defense; administer for the Department of Defense the National Disclosure Policy, the Foreign Disclosure and Technical Information System, the Foreign Visits Program, and the U.S. Visitor International Technology Program. As the U.S. Security Authority for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, serve as the primary focal point for staff coordination on these matters both internal and external to the Department of Defense. Develop policy and provide oversight for emergency planning and preparedness, crisis management, defense mobilization in emergency situations, military support to civil authorities, civil defense, and continuity of operations and government. Develop policy and coordinate DoD participation in, and exercise staff supervision over, special activities, special access programs, sensitive support to non-DoD agencies, and the joint worldwide reconnaissance schedule.

3.17. Perform such other functions as the Secretary of Defense may prescribe.

4. RELATIONSHIPS

4.1. In the performance of assigned functions and responsibilities, the USD(P) shall:
